Mr. Ashton Jung
President, InnoYouth

Dear Ashton,

On behalf of Braille Institute, I wish to offer our deepest thanks for your organizing and coordinating the recent donation of 46,860 braille and tactile books to the Braille Institute Library. We greatly appreciate this generous donation and your work as President of InnoYouth and connection with WITHON9 in making it happen.

Without needing to research this, I think it's fair to say that your donation is one of the largest gifts of books to the Library in Braille Institute's 107-year history—if not the largest. We're still marvelling at the 2,343 boxes of books stacked in our facility.

Besides the vast quantity, the quality of the books is quite impressive. I can assure you that these books will bring great joy to the many children who are blind whom we work with and who learn braille from books like these. Braille literacy is very important to the future success of children who are blind. Your donation will have a tremendous impact.

Thank you again for your work in organizing and coordinating the donations of braille and tactile books to the Braille Institute library.

With gratitude,
